ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

RUBEN DELFIN PEREZ
Defendant

CASE NO. 4:07-344M

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act; 18 U.S.C. §3142, a decision on pretrial detention has been made. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

Part I - Findings of Fact

Defendant is charged with conspiracy to possess with the intent to distribute cocaine in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846, 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(A)(ii). An immigration detainer has been lodged against this defendant as he/she is subject to deportation if convicted of the pending charges.

- ☐ (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
☐ (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Alternative Findings (A)

- ☒ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense
☒ for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 USC § 841.
et. seq.
☐ under 18 U.S.C. §924(c).
☒ (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions (X) will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required () the safety of the community.

Alternative Findings (B)

Defendant is charged with firearms violations under 18 U.S.C. § 922 et., seq; and

- () he/she is still in state custody on a previous conviction.
() is currently on () probation. () parole.
() his/her criminal history indicates a failure to comply with previous court orders.

Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

No appropriate conditions of release are available. Defendant reportedly is in the United States with no legal right to be here and the immigration authorities have placed a detainer against him. Defendant is ordered removed to the charging district.

Part III - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
